DELAYED REGISTRATION LAW

(1937 Session Laws, Chapter 139, Section 4)

Where the birth of a child born prior to the effective date of Chapter 191, 1911 Session Laws, has not been recorded, or in case of failure to report any birth which has occurred subsequent to such date, such report may be received and filed by the local registrar for record in the Bureau of Vital Statistics for the purposes and uses prescribed in Chapter 2, Title 38, Idaho Code Annotated, when such report is accompanied by a certificate of the attending physician or midwife, or by Affidavits of the father or mother of the child, or if neither father or mother of the child is living or accessible, of the nearest of kin or guardian, or some person having direct knowledge in the premises.

The father of this subject was my brother. He died in 1902. Her mother died in 1935. There are no family records showing details as to this birth, nor is any person available who recalls them. I knew by correspondence with my brother when his children were born, but have no record or memoranda. I first saw the subject soon after her father's death, when she and her mother visited me in Minneapolis. — I have in my possession a Genealogy of the descendants of Nathaniel Foote, of Wethersfield, Conn., published in 1907. On p. 198 it shows the birth of the subject Jan. 23, 1893, but does not show the place. I know the place by family tradition.

Where the birth of a child born prior to the effective date of Chapter 191, 1911 Session Laws, has not been recorded, or in case of failure to report any birth which has occurred subsequent to such date, such report may be received and filed by the local registrar for record in the Bureau of Vital Statistics for the purposes and uses prescribed in Chapter 2, Title 38, Idaho Code Annotated, when such report is accompanied by a certificate of the attending physician or midwife, or by affidavit of the father or mother of the child, or if neither father or mother of the child is living or accessible, of the nearest of kin or guardian, or some person having direct knowledge in the premises.

I, Margaret L. Robertson, Notary Public in and for the State of Idaho, state that I have examined the honorable discharge from the United States Army of Albert R. Lawson, 2570232, who was a Private in Company "F", Twelfth Infantry, and find that said discharge shows Albert R. Lawson to have been born at Three Creek, State of Idaho and when enlisted was twenty-four years and nine months of age, by occupation a farmer. Further, that the said enlistment occurred at Silver City, Idaho on August 9, 1918. This discharge appears to be regular in every way and from its appearance it is apparently twenty-five, or more, years old.

From such examination, I conclude that the said discharge was issued to Lawson in the regular manner of approximately the date of March 8, 1919.

Notary Public

MAR 26 1948

I, Margaret L. Robertson, Notary Public in and for the State of Idaho, state that I have examined the honorable discharge from the United States Army of Albert R. Lawson, 2570232, who was a Private in Company "F", Twelfth Infantry, and find that said discharge shows Albert R. Lawson to have been born at Three Creek, State of Idaho and when enlisted was twenty-four years and nine months of age, by occupation a farmer. Further, that the said enlistment occurred at Silver City, Idaho on August 9, 1918. This discharge appears to be regular in every way and from its appearance it is apparently twenty-five, or more, years old.

From such examination, I conclude that the said discharge was issued to Lawson in the regular manner of approximately the date of March 8, 1919.
